

Bob Dendy – President/CEO, HumanKind

Bob is the President/CEO of HumanKind, a multi-site human services organization, where he has been leading transformation, creating collaborations, building capacity and expanding services since 2003. His educational experiences include Leadership Forum; LEAD Virginia, 2009; Leadership Trust; Master of Public Health, Medical College of Virginia at Virginia Commonwealth University; Bachelor of Science in Health Care Management, MCV/VCU.

Before serving at HumanKind, Dendy served as President and CEO of Credential America and as manager for HCA. He has served on the Board of Virginia's Department for the Blind and Vision Impaired and is an Elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Legally blind, Bob is married with three sons and enjoys reading, gardening, cooking, traveling, biking, swimming and running.